The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under the CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) and (a)(4) programs.	ATCC identified 878 students eligible to receive CRRSAA Grants who were enrolled in at least one credit as of April 12th, 2021. Students excluded from this list included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All students who were not eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. • Current high school students (Online College in the High School, concurrent enrollment, PSEO) • Farm Business Students • Senior Citizen Rate Students • DACA Students • MinnState Employees • Incarcerated Students • International Students ATCC is awarding CRRSAA Grants in a few different methods. The first method was to make two-tiered block grants based on the eligible student 2020-2021 FAFSA EFC. In an effort to prioritize students with exceptional need, our grant program provides two buckets of funding for students including funding a two-tiered $600/$300 "block" awards. Eligible students with an EFC range of 0 - 5,711 (Pell eligible EFC range) received $600 and non-Pell Grant eligible students with an EFC range of 5,712 – 15,000 received $300. All eligible students must have been in a program and must be in good academic standing as of April 12, 2021 to receive a block grant. The second method was reserved for individual students who certified expenses including food, housing, course materials, technology, and health care in an online CRRSAA emergency grant application. These grants are intended to be used for the cost of attendance or for emergency expenses incurred due to the pandemic, such as tuition, food, housing, or health care, including mental health care.
Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to student concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.	A copy of the President’s April 16, 2021 CRRSAA letter mailed to each student is located at: alextech.edu/crrsaa-reporting The President and Chief Financial Officer presented on the CRRSAA plan at the February 4 & 18, 2021 Student Senate meetings.
