

THINK & THRIVE

Think & Thrive will provide a nonpartisan platform for civic education and intergenerational engagement, creating structured opportunities for ATCC students to interact with participants while learning about civic systems, community issues, and pathways for civic participation. By bringing students into conversation with engaged community members, the project promotes mutual learning and strengthens understanding of how individuals can participate meaningfully in public life.

VOTING RIGHTS & THE 2026 ELECTIONS

DAVID SCHULTZ
Hamline University

Voting is arguably the most important right in the US. But how secure is the right to vote and the voting process? This talk examines the history of voting rights in America with emphasis on how recent challenges to voting may impact the 2026 elections.

David Schultz is Hamline University Distinguished University Professor in Political Science and Legal Studies and he holds the Winston Folkers Endowed Distinguished Faculty Chair. He is also Professor, General Jonas Žemaitis Military Academy of Lithuania and Editor-in-Chief, Minneapolis Times. David is the author-editor of more than 50 books and 200 articles

FREE SPEECH ON CAMPUS

C.L. LINDSAY
DeSales University

In this engaging and nonpartisan program, higher education attorney C.L. Lindsay will help you understand the realities of free expression, the First Amendment, and how to navigate difficult conversations with respect and confidence.

C.L. Lindsay III is a nationally-recognized expert and leader in the field of student rights and academic freedom. He literally wrote the book on legal problems at colleges. "The College Student's Guide to the Law" has become the definitive authority used by students, university counsel, and as a textbook for masters and law courses nationwide. In his spare time, he teaches courses in law and literature at the University of Pennsylvania.
