Alexandria Technical & Community College promotes freedom of expression to the extent it does not violate individual rights. One freedom of expression is the right to free speech. The college has designated an area on the campus as a 'free speech zone'. ATCC Procedure 3.1.3

The area on the north end of the campus is a 'free speech zone'. Please review the map for specific locations.

Requirements:

- Speech may occur between the hours of 7:00 AM and 10:00 PM.
- No sound amplification is permitted.
- No substantial disruption of campus activities and processes is permitted.
